The Reinvestment Task Force

Connecting the Community with Financial Resources in San Diego

As the Chair of the Economic Development and Intergovernmental Relations Committee, I advocate to expand and retain businesses to create a strong local economy and quality jobs. In an effort to accomplish just that, I have taken on the responsibility as the Co-Chair of the Reinvestment Task Force since I was elected.

The San Diego City-County Reinvestment Task Force is tasked with monitoring and helping to increase bank lending, investments and grant making that benefit the county's low and moderate-income (LMI) residents. The members of the Task Force also work on collective action projects throughout the year by using a collaborative approach to focus on the needs of LMI residents. The group has 15 members of banks and non-profit organizations including Union Bank, Citi Bank, Wells Fargo and U.S. Bank.

I have already seen what our Task Force members can accomplish in Southeastern communities. Specifically, the contributions of U.S. Bank located on Federal Boulevard, have gone above and beyond the needs of the community. The bank's contributions to Fourth District non-profits and events have not only increased financial success for local businesses, but also advanced our economic power in San Diego. U.S. Bank's community involvement and charitable investments in the community includes funding to various non-profit organizations in the district, including the Diamond BID. They also provide banking services to businesses, families and individuals throughout the community.

Donald Canteen, Branch Manager of U.S. Bank states, "As a representative of U.S. Bank, it is a privilege to work in District Four. We pride ourselves for being able to empower the dreams of our community."

Connecting Financial Resources to the Community: As the Co-Chair of the Reinvestment Task Force, Councilmember Cole leads the conversation about financial resources in San Diego. The coalition between its member banks and community residents is essential to the success of District 4.

A Cause worth Supporting: Councilmember Cole gives the I Am Beautiful Women's Foundation a Special Commendation for the organization's dedication to help women and young girls who suffer from severe hair loss. Thanks to the new San Diego chapter, women who need these services will have a place to go.
